

Little Rock Attorney Launches Free Child Custody App [LittleRockCustody.com]

Little Rock, Arkansas - March 8th., 2017 - Single, separated, or divorcing parents involved in child custody disputes can now easily track pick-up, drop-off, expense, communication, and frequency of contact records absolutely free by going to LittleRockCustody.com.

With her direct experience, Destiny McHughes, Managing Member of Destiny Law Firm, PLLC, has recommended over and over again that parents involved in child custody disputes should keep consistent records of their involvement. LittleRockCustody.com solves this problem by giving a solution to any parent who wishes to keep records of their (or another's) involvement in the palm of their hand.

With LittleRockCustody.com, sign-up is simple, providing users the power to comprehensively, yet conveniently use any internet-connected mobile device, laptop or computer to manage seven key aspects of custody management:
